

DO YOU Want an Overcoat, Suit of Clothes, or Pair of Pants? Now is your chance to buy clothing at your own price. CATCH ON Before it is too late. Only a Few days more of VIETS BROS'. GREAT QUIT BUSINESS SALE

Every dollar's worth of goods must be sold by Jan. 1st, at prices far below first cost. Men's fine Worsteds Suits, worth $22.50 going for $15.00. Men's Suits worth $15.00, going for $10.00; Men's Suits worth 10.00 going for 8.00.

Overcoats worth 18.00 going for 14.00; Overcoats worth 15.00 going for 10.00; Overcoats worth 12.00 going for 9.00; Overcoats worth 8.50 going for 5.00.

Men's fine Pants worth 3.00 for 1.50. Furnishing goods at your own price. "Money saved, is money made." You can save big money by coming to Our GREAT QUIT BUSINESS SALE. Time is short, don't delay.

VIETS :: BROS.,
416 EAST DOUGLAS AVENUE.
Show Cases and Fixtures For Sale.

CHRISTMAS - PRESENTS

What more practical and acceptable than a FINE FORM FITTING SUIT

OR A

TAILOR-MADE :: TROUSER

Both of which you can find at our establishment, equal to best. Made-to-Order Work, at about half the price they charge. An inspection is all we ask, to satisfy yourself of our claims.

Star Clothing

House

One-Price Clothier, Hatter and Furnisher.

Special Sale on our Fine Tailor-Made Overcoats still continues. See our Exhibit in Show Windows.

GRAND HOLIDAY OPENING

OF THE

IMMENSE :: NEW :: LINE

OF

XMAS GOODS

Goldsmith Book & Stationery Co's

149 North Main St,

Saturday, Dec. 16th, from 2 to 11 o'clock. Music in attendance.

Christmas
Nearly Here.

We have made more complete purchases this season than ever and are prepared to show the best line in the state.

Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry, Silverware, Cut Glass, Piano, Banquet and Table Lamps, Art Pottery and Art Metalwares.

This season we have added a fine line of Leather goods with silver trimmings, Toilet Cases, Manicure Sets, Glove and Handkerchief Boxes, Cuff and Collar Boxes, Cigar Cases, Card Cases, Pocket Books, Card Cases. We have also a fine selection of fanned and Umbrellas. We feel that we can suit everybody both in style and price, and invite an inspection of our stock.

Store will be open evenings until after the holidays.

Edward Vail & Co.,
JEWELERS,
106 E. Douglas Ave.

Holiday Goods.

Latest Novelties in Music Cabinets, Oak, Mahogany and Bamboo, cheaper than ever. Music Rolls, Mandolins, Guitars, Banjos, Violins, Music Boxes.

Beautiful new goods at rock bottom prices.

Latest Sheet Music and Books.

Special prices during Holidays on Pianos, Organs and Sewing Machines.

We carry the best goods in the market and sell cheaper than anybody. Call and be convinced.

Barnes & Newcomb

407 E. DOUGLAS.

Weak Kidneys

Sharp, shooting pains, back ache, side ache, chest pains and palpitation relieved in 10 MINUTE by the CUTICURA ANTI-PAIN PLASTER, the first and only pain-killing plaster. It restores vitality, and hence cures nervous pain and muscular weakness.

Price: 25c; five, $1.00. At all druggists or by mail. POTTER DRUG AND CHEM. CO., Boston.

To-DAY the International Poultry and Pet Stock show opens at Cleveland, O.

This is one of the greatest poultry exhibitions on this side of the Atlantic, and blue blooded fowls from every part of the United States and the Dominion of Canada will be presented for admiration and prizes. Cleveland is crowded with strangers and poultry fanciers and the town is all excitement.

There's another big excitement in Wichita, over the elegant suits we are making to order at $22.50; Pants at 5.50. See our Christmas novelties in neckwear, suspenders, silk mufflers, handkerchiefs, &c., for gentlemen.

T. B. GLOSSER,

Tailor and Furnisher,

145 North Main St.

128 N. MAIN.

Special Sale on our Fine Tailor-Made Overcoats still continues. See our Exhibit in Show Windows.

GRAND HOLIDAY OPENING

OF THE

IMMENSE :: NEW :: LINE

OF

XMAS GOODS

Goldsmith Book & Stationery Co's

149 North Main St,

Saturday, Dec. 16th, from 2 to 11 o'clock. Music in attendance.

Christmas
Nearly Here.

We have made more complete purchases this season than ever and are prepared to show the best line in the state.

Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry, Silverware, Cut Glass, Piano, Banquet and Table Lamps, Art Pottery and Art Metalwares.

This season we have added a fine line of Leather goods with silver trimmings, Toilet Cases, Manicure Sets, Glove and Handkerchief Boxes, Cuff and Collar Boxes, Cigar Cases, Card Cases, Pocket Books, Card Cases. We have also a fine selection of fanned and Umbrellas. We feel that we can suit everybody both in style and price, and invite an inspection of our stock.

Store will be open evenings until after the holidays.

Edward Vail & Co.,
JEWELERS,
106 E. Douglas Ave.

Holiday Goods.

Latest Novelties in Music Cabinets, Oak, Mahogany and Bamboo, cheaper than ever. Music Rolls, Mandolins, Guitars, Banjos, Violins, Music Boxes.

Beautiful new goods at rock bottom prices.

Latest Sheet Music and Books.

Special prices during Holidays on Pianos, Organs and Sewing Machines.

We carry the best goods in the market and sell cheaper than anybody. Call and be convinced.

Barnes & Newcomb

407 E. DOUGLAS.

UTAH TO BE ADMITTED.

THE BILL PASSED BY THE HOUSE WITHOUT DIVISION.

Polygamous Marriages Prohibited by the Adoption of the Amendment Offered by Mr. Powers.

Senator Frye of Maine Imposes the Veto of Commissioner Blount and Eulogizes ex Minister Stevens.

Senator Vest of Missouri Defends the Georgian and Denounces the Proposed Departure From the Traditional Foreign Policy of the Country.

The Bill To Be Reported to the House on Next Tuesday.

Several Pension Billings.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The bill for the admission of Utah to statehood was passed in the house without division today at the conclusion of the debate. The only amendment of importance incorporated in the enabling act were one offered by Mr. Powers of Vermont, prohibiting polygamy forever, and another by Mr. Wheeler of Alabama, reducing by one-half the lands granted to the state for common school purposes.

Mr. Newlands of Nevada made his maiden speech in the admission of Utah. He thought Utah fully prepared for statehood, but objected to leaving the question of the allotment of lands in Utah to the bureau at Washington, which did not understand the conditions. The United States, he thought, should co-operate in the reclamation of the arid lands of that region. Mr. Newlands claimed that the cause of the present depression in Utah was legislation leveled at her interests. Silver, which enabled the country to resume specie payments, had been stricken down, and now a Democratic tariff bill proposed to crush sheep raising and the box mines by putting wool and silver on the free list.

Mr. Simpson of Kansas favored the bill, in a characteristically vigorous speech, charging the opposition to Utah's admission with being moved by narrow and prejudiced sentiments. The fact that Utah would send two senators, and a representative here who would vote against the financial ideas of the east, he thought, was the sole ground of opposition. With regard to the circular of Governor Leavelle, he said that 3,000,000 men out of employment were tramping the streets and ruins of the country. Whatever the cause, whoever was right, the populist party believed in lending a helping hand to the poor and distressed. With a republic of government promulgated this doctrine he was denounced as a crank by petty politicians and newspapers.

Mr. Arnold of Missouri and Mr. Washington of Tennessee supported the admission.

Mr. Oates of Alabama proposed the union of Utah and Nevada, observing that Nevada continued to lose population, and that it was a question as to what was to become of Nevada.

Mr. Doolittle of Iowa made a speech favoring the admission of Utah.

After some further discussion the amendments proposed by Mr. Powers and Mr. Wheeler were adopted, and the bill passed without division.

The bill resolution, calling for the correspondence in the Hawaiian affair, was amended so as to include the extension of the period to be covered by the correspondence to March, 1893, the beginning of the Harrison administration, and passed at 4 o'clock p. m. in the house adjourned.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The Hawaiian question was the subject of an animated and interesting discussion in the senate today. Mr. Blount's report was characterized by Mr. Frye of Maine as containing "not one line of unvarnished truth," while Mr. Vest of Missouri declared that, while he was opposed to the annexation of the islands, the restoration of the queen by force would be a "act of war."

Mr. Frye expressed a wish that the foreign relations committee would make a full investigation of the subject, and, turning to Mr. Blount's report, he continued:

"I wish to say in relation to that report that, in my judgment, it is a most dangerous report—one on which no senator could afford to make any serious attack upon the character of any private citizen of the United States. I affirm that Mr. Blount, in that report, has not written one single unvarnished line of truth, nor given one unvarnished word, nor rendered one impartial judgment."

Mr. Frye then entered into an eulogy of ex-Minister Stevens. He said that he had known Mr. Stevens for many years, and that he was a man of high character and high ability. He said that he was a man of high character and high ability.

Mr. Vest of Missouri then spoke. He said that he was a man of high character and high ability. He said that he was a man of high character and high ability.

Mr. Gray requested Mr. Frye's authority for the last statement, but the latter said that he was not at liberty to give it.

Mr. Vest of Missouri then spoke. He said that he was a man of high character and high ability. He said that he was a man of high character and high ability.

Mr. Gray requested Mr. Frye's authority for the last statement, but the latter said that he was not at liberty to give it.

Mr. Vest of Missouri then spoke. He said that he was a man of high character and high ability. He said that he was a man of high character and high ability.

Mr. Gray requested Mr. Frye's authority for the last statement, but the latter said that he was not at liberty to give it.

Mr. Vest of Missouri then spoke. He said that he was a man of high character and high ability. He said that he was a man of high character and high ability.

Mr. Gray requested Mr. Frye's authority for the last statement, but the latter said that he was not at liberty to give it.

Mr. Vest of Missouri then spoke. He said that he was a man of high character and high ability. He said that he was a man of high character and high ability.

Mr. Gray requested Mr. Frye's authority for the last statement, but the latter said that he was not at liberty to give it.

Mr. Vest of Missouri then spoke. He said that he was a man of high character and high ability. He said that he was a man of high character and high ability.

Mr. Gray requested Mr. Frye's authority for the last statement, but the latter said that he was not at liberty to give it.

Mr. Vest of Missouri then spoke. He said that he was a man of high character and high ability. He said that he was a man of high character and high ability.

Mr. Gray requested Mr. Frye's authority for the last statement, but the latter said that he was not at liberty to give it.

Mr. Vest of Missouri then spoke. He said that he was a man of high character and high ability. He said that he was a man of high character and high ability.

Mr. Gray requested Mr. Frye's authority for the last statement, but the latter said that he was not at liberty to give it.

Mr. Vest of Missouri then spoke. He said that he was a man of high character and high ability. He said that he was a man of high character and high ability.

Mr. Gray requested Mr. Frye's authority for the last statement, but the latter said that he was not at liberty to give it.

Mr. Vest of Missouri then spoke. He said that he was a man of high character and high ability. He said that he was a man of high character and high ability.

Mr. Gray requested Mr. Frye's authority for the last statement, but the latter said that he was not at liberty to give it.

Mr. Vest of Missouri then spoke. He said that he was a man of high character and high ability. He said that he was a man of high character and high ability.

CARTER TO GRESHAM.

THE LATEST CONTRIBUTION TO HAWAIIAN LITERATURE.

An Open Letter From the Envoy of the Provisional Government to the Secretary of State.

The Annexation Commissioners Denied an Opportunity to Reply to the Charges Against the Revolutionary Leaders.

American Naval Officers Pleased With the Determined Stand Taken by President Dole and His Supporters Against the Restoration of the Queen.

The President's Policy Denounced by an American Merchant.

General Notes.

SAFETY, Dec. 13.—Commissioner Charles L. Carter, who visited the United States shortly after the revolution in Hawaii in the interest of the provisional government, has written an open letter to Secretary Gresham. The letter is dated Honolulu, Nov. 23, 1893, and states that he is authorized to address the secretary by the provisional government. The letter is a reply to Secretary Gresham's dispatch dated Oct. 18, which contained the recommendation that the treaty of annexation be not submitted, and suggesting that Queen Liliuokalani be restored to the throne.

Mr. Carter goes on at great length to show why these suggestions and recommendations should not be carried out. After recapitulating the causes that led up to the revolution and the history of the revolution itself, Mr. Carter criticizes Secretary Gresham for not allowing the special commissioners sent to Washington to negotiate a treaty of annexation to make any statement to him, and for not, in spite of the fact that Secretary Gresham stated in the dispatch referred to before that "their dispatches are entirely at variance with the evidence documentary and oral, contained in Mr. Blount's report." Mr. Carter states that Secretary Gresham "deliberately and persistently evaded any opportunity to allow the commissioners to make any statement."

The letter reiterates the statement already made by the friends of the provisional government, that the revolution was accomplished without the aid of United States troops. The letter also states that Secretary Gresham told Mr. Carter, in an interview had shortly after the news of the lowering of the American flag in Honolulu reached Washington, that there would be no attempt made to restore the queen. The letter closes with the statement that the writer regrets that he has never been given an opportunity to make a statement in regard to the revolution to Secretary Gresham.

Among the passengers on the steamship Oceanic, which arrived last night from Honolulu, was Hon. P. C. Jones, ex-minister of finance under the monarchy, and after the revolution one of the provisional government's most ardent supporters.

Mr. Jones is on his way to Washington on official business. He is the brother of several affidavits from prominent people of Honolulu calculated to disprove the statements in Commissioner Blount's report.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The following dispatch was received by the navy department today:

"HONOLULU, Dec. 4, 1893. "Provisional government has 1,900 men under arms. Palace prepared for defense."

There is not much attempt on the part of the officials in the navy department to conceal the satisfaction they feel at the turn of events here in Hawaii. The navy has been rather sympathetic with the administration's policy and the dissatisfaction has increased with the last news received.

A MERCHANT'S VIEWS.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 13.—For the first time in the history of this country American citizens are tempted to wish they were British subjects.

Thus said Mr. William A. Wilson, the head of the big tea house of Wilson & Co. of Yokohama, Japan, at the Midland hotel last night.

He is on his annual tour of this country in the interest of his house and will have crossed the continent twice and sailed for home early next March.

Mr. Wilson is an American citizen, but not a partisan in politics. He stopped in Honolulu, Nov. 14 last, on his way to America from Japan.

"The interests of the Hawaiian islands are American interests, and the policy of the administration is most flagrantly anti-American. The American citizens of the islands feel that they ought to be protected and their interests safeguarded by the United States government."

They know if they were British subjects they would be protected, and for the first time in the history of this country American citizens are tempted to wish they were British subjects.

Thus said Mr. William A. Wilson, the head of the big tea house of Wilson & Co. of Yokohama, Japan, at the Midland hotel last night.

He is on his annual tour of this country in the interest of his house and will have crossed the continent twice and sailed for home early next March.

Mr. Wilson is an American citizen, but not a partisan in politics. He stopped in Honolulu, Nov. 14 last, on his way to America from Japan.

"The interests of the Hawaiian islands are American interests, and the policy of the administration is most flagrantly anti-American. The American citizens of the islands feel that they ought to be protected and their interests safeguarded by the United States government."

They know if they were British subjects they would be protected, and for the first time in the history of this country American citizens are tempted to wish they were British subjects.

Thus said Mr. William A. Wilson, the head of the big tea house of Wilson & Co. of Yokohama, Japan, at the Midland hotel last night.

He is on his annual tour of this country in the interest of his house and will have crossed the continent twice and sailed for home early next March.

Mr. Wilson is an American citizen, but not a partisan in politics. He stopped in Honolulu, Nov. 14 last, on his way to America from Japan.

"The interests of the Hawaiian islands are American interests, and the policy of the administration is most flagrantly anti-American. The American citizens of the islands feel that they ought to be protected and their interests safeguarded by the United States government."

They know if they were British subjects they would be protected, and for the first time in the history of this country American citizens are tempted to wish they were British subjects.

Thus said Mr. William A. Wilson, the head of the big tea house of Wilson & Co. of Yokohama, Japan, at the Midland hotel last night.

He is on his annual tour of this country in the interest of his house and will have crossed the continent twice and sailed for home early next March.

Mr. Wilson is an American citizen, but not a partisan in politics. He stopped in Honolulu, Nov. 14 last, on his way to America from Japan.

"The interests of the Hawaiian islands are American interests, and the policy of the administration is most flagrantly anti-American. The American citizens of the islands feel that they ought to be protected and their interests safeguarded by the United States government."

They know if they were British subjects they would be protected, and for the first time in the history of this country American citizens are tempted to wish they were British subjects.

Thus said Mr. William A. Wilson, the head of the big tea house of Wilson & Co. of Yokohama, Japan, at the Midland hotel last night.

He is on his annual tour of this country in the interest of his house and will have crossed the continent twice and sailed for home early next March.

Mr. Wilson is an American citizen, but not a partisan in politics. He stopped in Honolulu, Nov. 14 last, on his way to America from Japan.

THE WAR IN BRAZIL.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The war department has received the following from Captain Pickens, sent under date of Dec. 13, from Rio:

"Copas island and Encarnadas are in possession of Admiral de Gama, the insurgent commander. The former is well fortified, and is continually firing upon the custom house and naval arsenal."

HIGH KICKING IN COURT.

PATERSON, N. J., Dec. 13.—A "dans da ventre" was performed under oath in Justice Levy's court yesterday, and the youthful magistrate decided that it was not immoral nor even improper. Mrs. Elizabeth Jones made a complaint, charging the dancer, Manie McDougal, with disorderly conduct. The Jones family occupy apartments above those of the McDougals in a little cottage at Hawthorne. Friends spent Thanksgiving day at Manie's home, and in the afternoon Manie invited some of them into the hall-way to see her perform the dans da ventre. Mrs. Jones leaned over the balcony and saw the entertainment. When told to give her dance in court the young woman kissed the Bible, blasphemed, and then tucked up her skirts. With a graceful movement she bent backward until her head and neck nearly touched the ground. As gracefully she resumed an erect position, and then raised her foot until it was several inches above her head. Other movements were performed. When the young woman said, "That is all, judge," he was obliged to adjourn. Judge Levy declared that Miss McDougal had been guilty of no offense, and dismissed the complaint.

TWO FOR EVERY FAMILY.

KAUAI. You will find a coupon numbered No. 4. In addition to this two more coupons will be published for Part First of the beautiful Art Portfolio. If you want a complete book you must secure Part First. If you secure Part First there is no danger of your wanting all the rest. The portfolio given out yesterday was the talk of the town. You will regret it if you do not cut out three coupons and send them together with eight cents in coin to the Coupon Department at the Wichita Eagle. One family taking the Eagle can thus secure two copies of every part.

A MEXICAN FEAST.

CITY OF MEXICO, Dec. 13.—The feast of Guadalupe, the great Catholic event of the year, came to a close in the suburb of Guadalupe last night. The attendance was as large as ever known. Fully 50,000 pilgrims from all parts of Mexico were present to make their devotions to Our Lady of Guadalupe, the saving virgin of the country. The scenes of fanatic zeal, which in past years have been so conspicuous, are growing less and less, although many of the pilgrims will walk from the cathedral plaza in the center of the city to the Temple of Guadalupe, a distance of two and one-half miles, on their knees. Hundreds of others go on hands and knees up the rocky slopes of the hills of Guadalupe to the temple on the summit marking the spot on which occurred the apparition of the Angel Guadalupe in the sixteenth century according to Indian tradition. The gambling, chicken fights, bull fights and other pleasures attendant on a religious feast in the south were all present in their glory. Pickpockets and robbers swarmed the vicinity of the church, and the police have been kept busy since the feast was begun on the 9th inst. Thousands will sleep in the open fields tonight, and tomorrow the drift of pilgrims will be outward.

KINGFISHER NOTES.

KINGFISHER, O. T., Dec. 13.—[Special.]—Last night, at 8:30 o'clock, Starla & Walker of St. Joseph, Mo., saw an attachment for $100 on the grocery stock of Felix Heiskell, corner of Main and Adams streets.

Heiskell assigned to William Grimes for the benefit of his creditors, among whom are Steele & Walker of St. Joseph, $100. Leiman & Higgins of Wichita, $100. Leiman & Higgins of St. Joseph, $100. Mount of St. Joseph, $100. Produce company, $100. The liabilities will aggregate about $1,200. The store will, it is said, be opened in the morning, and business continued under direction of the assignee.

Yesterday E. W. Fennell, a photographer, while passing the residence of a colored man, was set upon by three vicious dogs. He was thrown to the ground, bitten severely, though not dangerously, on the thigh and leg. The dogs are dead.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 13.—Judge Phillips of the United States circuit court of appeals decided that the Kansas City water-works case this morning. He ordered the city to pay the water-works company forthwith $112,000 for service already rendered, and $60 cent hereafter on the running price. The question of the injunction will not be decided until the final hearing of the case. Judge Caldwell concurs.

THE WILSON BILL.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The ways and means committee before adjourning this evening ordered the new tariff bill to be reported to the house next Tuesday. At a meeting on Tuesday morning the majority will submit to the Republican members of the committee copies of the report on the bill. The Republicans at that time may have their minority report ready to present, or they may wait a few days' time to examine the report of the majority. Between now and Tuesday Chairman Wilson will prepare the report, and it will be submitted to the minority members of the committee from time to time until approved and ready to present. The bill which has been completed is the customs portion only. The time of its consideration in the house has not been settled, but the probability seems to be that it cannot possibly be reached before the holidays.

THE WAR IN BRAZIL.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The war department has received the following from Captain Pickens, sent under date of Dec. 13, from Rio:

"Copas island and Encarnadas are in possession of Admiral de Gama, the insurgent commander. The former is well fortified, and is continually firing upon the custom house and naval arsenal."

HIGH KICKING IN COURT.

PATERSON, N. J., Dec. 13.—A "dans da ventre" was performed under oath in Justice Levy's court yesterday, and the youthful magistrate decided that it was not immoral nor even improper. Mrs. Elizabeth Jones made a complaint, charging the dancer, Manie McDougal, with disorderly conduct. The Jones family occupy apartments above those of the McDougals in a little cottage at Hawthorne. Friends spent Thanksgiving day at Manie's home, and in the afternoon Manie invited some of them into the hall-way to see her perform the dans da ventre. Mrs. Jones leaned over the balcony and saw the entertainment. When told to give her dance in court the young woman kissed the Bible, blasphemed, and then tucked up her skirts. With a graceful movement she bent backward until her head and neck nearly touched the ground. As gracefully she resumed an erect position, and then raised her foot until it was several inches above her head. Other movements were performed. When the young woman said, "That is all, judge," he was obliged to adjourn. Judge Levy declared that Miss McDougal had been guilty of no offense, and dismissed the complaint.

TWO FOR EVERY FAMILY.

KAUAI. You will find a coupon numbered No. 4. In addition to this two more coupons will be published for Part First of the beautiful Art Portfolio. If you want a complete book you must secure Part First. If you secure Part First there is no danger of your wanting all the rest. The portfolio given out yesterday was the talk of the town. You will regret it if you do not cut out three coupons and send them together with eight cents in coin to the Coupon Department at the Wichita Eagle. One family taking the Eagle can thus secure two copies of every part.

A MEXICAN FEAST.

CITY OF MEXICO, Dec. 13.—The feast of Guadalupe, the great Catholic event of the year, came to a close in the suburb of Guadalupe last night. The attendance was as large as ever known. Fully 50,000 pilgrims from all parts of Mexico were present to make their devotions to Our Lady of Guadalupe, the saving virgin of the country. The scenes of fanatic zeal, which in past years have been so conspicuous, are growing less and less, although many of the pilgrims will walk from the cathedral plaza in the center of the city to the Temple of Guadalupe, a distance of two and one-half miles, on their knees. Hundreds of others go on hands and knees up the rocky slopes of the hills of Guadalupe to the temple on the summit marking the spot on which occurred the apparition of the